7th SUNDAY of EASTER

May 16, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

We are happy to be joined by Fr. Christopher Deh who is being assigned to us as a permanent Associate Pastor. In the past, he has served St. Anthony of Padua RC Church in Rocky Point and St Peter of Alcantara in Port Washington as a summer priest for many years and was an Associate Pastor to St Mark's RC Church in Shoreham from 2010 to 2012. He came to serve at Saints Cyril and Methodius RC Church as a summer help in September of 2019. He is one therefore who is NOT a newcomer to Long Island. We are happy to have him with us and enjoy his company and benefit from his wisdom and ministry. He arrives this week from Ghana, will be quarantined for 10 days following CDC guidelines and will get tests to make sure all is clear and it is ok for him to minister to our congregation. He will begin to be included in our schedule of liturgies on the weekend of May 22. Please join me in welcoming him to our parish and making him feel at home.

On the seventh Sunday of Easter, we always read from the seventeenth chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter of John's Gospel comes at the conclusion of Jesus' farewell discourse delivered to the disciples at the Last Supper. This entire chapter is a prayer by Jesus, commending himself to the Father and expressing his care and concern for his disciples. At the end of this prayer, Jesus and his disciples depart for the garden, and Jesus is arrested. Several important themes appear in this prayer. First, Jesus' prayer reaffirms the complete union between himself and the Father. Throughout John's Gospel, Jesus has been presented as the one who preexisted with the Father and as the one sent by the Father to do his work on earth. In today's reading, we hear Jesus include all his disciples in this union with the Father. We are reminded that Christ is the source of Christian unity. Through Christ, we are united with one another and with God Our Father. In this prayer, Jesus describes part of his mission in the language of protection. He has protected those who were given to him by the Father. In this we hear echoes of the dualism that is reflected throughout John's Gospel. Beginning with the opening chapter, the Evangelist John has presented Jesus' mission on earth in the context of a cosmic struggle between good and evil, represented by light and darkness. In Jesus' presence, his disciples have been protected from Satan. Now that Jesus is returning to the Father, he prays that his disciples will continue to be protected from the evil one. We can't help but note here the echoes of the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples, the Lord's Prayer.

We also see in this chapter the distinction found in John's Gospel between the world and the disciples. The disciples are in the world, but they do not belong to the world. Yet like Jesus, they are sent into the world for the world's salvation. As Jesus' teaching and ministry was a source of consternation for some, Jesus knows that the world may not accept his disciples with open arms. Again, we hear echoes of John's theme that salvation is worked out through the cosmic battle between light and darkness. The world, according to John, prefers the darkness. Yet the light will not be overcome by the darkness. Reading this prayer of Jesus during the Easter Season, through the lens of his Resurrection, we know that the light of Christ has overcome the darkness of sin and death in our world. In the opening line of this prayer, we hear Jesus pray that his disciples will be kept in the name that he was given by God. We know that the salvation is given to us in the name of Jesus, and that his name - "God saves"—announces his mission on our behalf.

... details coming soon

Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God's generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

We are in full swing of celebrating Easter Sacraments! This weekend, on Saturday, May 15th, my last two groups of Level 2 students received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion! I am SO PROUD of them, and so look forward to sharing pictures of these special days with all of you over these next few weeks!

Confirmation Season

We are now officially in the time that is filled with all things Confirmation!

On Friday, May 14th, I invited all of our Level 8 students to join me here at the Church for a Confirmation Prayer Service, for them and two guests. This gave all of us the opportunity to come together and pray a week before their big day. Be sure to keep an eye out for pictures in the upcoming weeks!

This Friday, May 21st is Confirmation Day! This upcoming week is filled with our rehearsals, and the last remaining preparations before this exciting day. There is a lot to do as we get closer and closer to celebrating with all of our students and their families; Please continue to keep our students in your prayers! Thank you to everyone who has also sent prayers my way; I can certainly feel them!

FORMED Recommendations

For the month of May, I have previously shared two FORMED Recommendations for you this week; "Mary of Nazareth" for a full-length movie night with your family, and "The Rosary: A Special Way to Pray" from the Brother Francis Collection!

In honor of us celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima this last week, I am also recommending to all of our families one of my favorite videos on FORMED: "Fatima: The Day the Sun Danced"! This is a great short film all about the miracle of Our Lady (and a great opportunity to practice your Rosary, boys and girls!)

Use the QR codes to take you directly to each video series; Just scan with your phone in the camera app to start watching, and enjoy!
