6th SUNDAY of EASTER / Mother's Day

May 9, 2021

From Pope Francis, at a General Audience in Paul VI Audience Hall on 7 January 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning. Today we continue with catecheses on the Church and we will reflect on Mother Church. The Church is mother. Our Holy Mother Church.

In these days the Church's liturgy sets before our eyes the icon of the Virgin Mary, Mother of God. The first day of the year is the Feast of the Mother of God, followed by the Epiphany, commemorating the visit of the Magi. The Evangelist Matthew writes: "going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him" (Mt 2:11). It is the Mother who, after giving birth to him, presents the Son to the world. She gives us Jesus, she shows us Jesus, she lets us see Jesus.

Let us continue with the catecheses on the family, and in the family there is the mother. Every human person owes his or her life to a mother, and almost always owes much of what follows in life, both human and spiritual formation, to her. Yet, despite being highly lauded from a symbolic point of view — many poems, many beautiful things said poetically of her — the mother is rarely listened to or helped in daily life, rarely considered central to society in her role. Rather, often the readiness of mothers to make sacrifices for their children is taken advantage of so as to "save" on social spending.

It also happens that in Christian communities the mother is not always held in the right regard, she is barely heard. Yet the center of the life of the Church is the Mother of Jesus. Perhaps mothers, ready to sacrifice so much for their children and often for others as well, ought to be listened to more. We should understand more about their daily struggle to be efficient at work and attentive and affectionate in the family; we should better grasp what they aspire to in order to express the best and most authentic fruits of their emancipation. A mother with her children always has problems, always work. I remember there were five of us children at home, and while one was doing one thing, the other wanted to do another, and our poor mama went back and forth from one's side to another, but she was happy. She gave us so much.

Mothers are the strongest antidote to the spread of self-centered individualism. "Individual" means "what cannot be divided". Mothers, instead, "divide" themselves, from the moment they bear a child to give him to the world and help him grow. It is those, mothers, who most hate war, which kills their children. Many times I have thought of those mothers who receive the letter: "I inform you that your son has fallen in defense of his homeland...". The poor women! How a mother suffers! It is they who testify to the beauty of life. Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero said that mothers experience a "maternal martyrdom". In the homily for the funeral of a priest assassinated by death squads, he said, recalling the Second Vatican Council: "We must be ready to die for our faith, even if the Lord does not grant us this honor.... Giving one's life does not only mean being killed; giving one's life, having the spirit of a martyr, it is in giving in duty, in silence, in prayer, in honest fulfilment of his duty; in that silence of daily life; giving one's life little by little. Yes, like it is given by a mother, who without fear and with the simplicity of the maternal martyrdom, conceives a child in her womb, gives birth to him, nurses him, helps them grow and cares for them with affection. She gives her life. That's martyrdom". End quote. Yes, being a mother doesn't only mean bringing a child to the world, but it is also a life choice. What does a mother choose, what is the life choice of a mother? The life choice of a mother is the choice to give life. And this is great, this is beautiful.

A society without mothers would be a dehumanized society, for mothers are always, even in the worst moments, witnesses of tenderness, dedication and moral strength. Mothers often pass on the deepest sense of religious practice: in a human being's life, the value of faith is inscribed in the first prayers, the first acts of devotion that a child learns. It is a message that believing mothers are able to pass on without much explanation: these come later, but the seed of faith is those early precious moments.

Without mothers, not only would there be no new faithful, but the faith would lose a good part of its simple and profound warmth. And the Church is mother, with all of this, she is our mother! We are not orphans, we have a mother! Our Lady, mother Church, is our mom. We are not orphans, we are children of the Church, we are children of Our Lady, and we are children of our mothers.

Dearest mothers, thank you, thank you for what you are in your family and for what you give to the Church and the world. And to you, beloved Church, thank you, thank you for being mother. And to you, Mary, Mother of God, thank you for letting us see Jesus. And thank you for all the mammas present here: let us salute them with a round of applause!

MOTHER'S DAY SPIRITUAL BOUQUET TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER

This Mother's Day weekend, May 8 & 9th, please join us in offering a spiritual bouquet to Our Blessed Mother.

Following each Mass, all are invited to Our Lady of the Innocents Statue here inside our church, where there will be pens and paper for you to write down a prayer intention. There will also be flowers for you to offer to Our Lady in thanksgiving for her maternal care.

After writing down your intention, take a flower, and present both to Our Blessed Mother at the Our Lady of Innocents statue in the Vases and Intention box provided.

As we celebrate the gift of mothers and honor Our Blessed Mother, we also recognize that Mother's Day can be a difficult holiday for many. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions in your heart today.

Happy Mother's Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let's also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God's children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God's generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

Family Faith Formation and Religious Education

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

We are in full swing of celebrating Easter Sacraments! This weekend, on Saturday, May 8th, my second two groups of Level 2 students received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion! I am SO PROUD of them, and so look forward to sharing these days with our remaining students and their families the next few weeks! Please continue to keep these boys and girls and their loved ones in your prayers this month!

Happy Mother's Day!

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day! Our Program and Parish is full of so many incredible women who sacrifice so much for the children in their lives. The love that you all give on a daily basis is so evident, and is so noticed, respected, and appreciated.

From welcoming all of you (normally!) at the doors when you bring your children for class, to spending time with you at our Family Workshops, I get to witness just a small part of your days in how you get your children to everywhere that they need to be. To all of our mothers, grandmothers, aunts, and godmothers of our Parish Family, and to all of those who have shown us a mother's love; Thank you for all that you do, and for showing our little ones how Mary loves her Son in the way that you love and care for your children. Happy Mother's Day!

FORMED Recommendations

In honor of Mother's Day and for May being the month of Mary, I have two new FORMED Recommendations for you this week!
