Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 6, 2021

The Church's annual celebration of Corpus Christi - the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - is a uniquely Catholic celebration. Inspired by the devotion of St. Julian of Cornillon and Blessed Eva of Liège, this feast was added to the Church's calendar in 1264.

We could say that, in a sense, every celebration of the Mass is a celebration of Corpus Christi, but on this day we are invited to reflect on the gift of Christ's abiding presence in the Eucharist in a particular way. And, in the readings assigned to this feast this year, the Church asks us to pause and consider the sacrifice and self-gift that are embodied in the Eucharist.

“FOR MY FLESH IS TRUE FOOD AND MY BLOOD IS TRUE DRINK.”

2nd Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15 Christ is the mediator of the new covenant.

FROM THE PASTOR

The images of sacrifice that are included in the First and Second Readings for this feast help us understand how significant the offering and sharing of Jesus' Body and Blood really is.

In the Eucharist, we have both sacrifice and gift as his handing over of his body and blood—all that he is—at the Last Supper was an anticipation of the total offering of himself that took place on that Good Friday.

Jesus loves us so much that he holds nothing back from us. He gives all of himself to us. His love becomes the source of our life. And, just as mothers give of their very selves to nourish their children, Jesus does the same for us.

As we adore and give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist on this Corpus Christi, we are also invited to consider how we are using the gift we have received. Are we open to the life—his life—that Jesus offers us in the sacrament of his Body and Blood and are we willing to offer the gift of our selves for the sake of others in remembrance of him?

How have you experienced Christ's saving love in the Eucharist? Who has made sacrifices and given of themselves for you? How is Jesus inviting you to give of yourself for the sake of others?

"Today's Solemnity reminds us that in our fragmented lives, the Lord comes to meet us with a loving 'fragility,' which is the Eucharist. In the Bread of Life, the Lord comes to us, making himself a humble meal that lovingly heals our memory, wounded by life's frantic pace. The Eucharist is the memorial of God's love."

—Pope Francis

Director of Parish Social Ministry

Hello Again parishioners. It is me, Janet, the Parish Social Ministry director. I have been meeting some of you in person as the days go by. Soon I hope to meet more of you. While I have your attention I would like to say a few things that concern donating to the pantry. First of course is that it is so wonderful to see how generous all of you are!

Secondly, your donations are certainly going to good use! Each week we have more people realizing that we are fully open and that we are giving food every week and not every month any longer. We are able to do this due to your generosity.

I would like to let you know who our clients are. Most of our clients consist of families of one or two senior citizens, or an adult couple, single adults followed by families of parents with one child, single mothers with one or two children followed by larger families of parents with several children as many as 5. As you can see it is difficult to take care of the clients we have with the make up of the families if we get too many items that come from the big box stores. If you would please keep in mind who our clients are and the size of the items you are donating, it would be so helpful.

This week there will be many items listed as needs in the pantry. I am going to list sizes next to some of the items as a guide. We do have a great deal of boxed pasta and spaghetti right now so that need is more than fulfilled.

Our needs are growing as the number of families that have come back to the pantry are growing.

Please check the bulletin for the items needed. I know the list is quite long so there are many items to choose. I would encourage you to set a budget as to how much you can afford to donate and then pick from the items on the list (I know it isn't always what is on sale that week) However, it is more helpful if you can only purchase one item on the list that is within your budget rather than 4 things on sale not on the list. I am hoping this does not sound like I am complaining rather than explaining.

God Bless all of you for your great generosity.

Janet
