13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 27, 2021

The USCCB began Religious Freedom Week on June 22, the day when the Church celebrates the feast day of Saint Thomas More and Saint John Fisher.

St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher were Renaissance men. Talented and energetic, they contributed to the humanist scholarship of early modern England. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. As a bishop, he is notable for his dedication to preaching at a time when bishops tended to focus on politics. These men were brilliant. They both corresponded with Erasmus, who helped Bishop Fisher learn Greek and Hebrew, and who also famously referred to More as a man for all seasons. Above all their accomplishments, these men bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. More considered joining religious life and was assiduous in his devotional practices. As a married man, he committed himself wholly to his vocation as a father. At the time, disciplinary practices with children tended to be severe, but More's children testify to his warmth, patience, and generosity.

St. John Fisher was a model shepherd and demonstrated remarkable humility. He remained in the small Diocese of Rochester his entire episcopal ministry, devoting himself to his local church rather than seeking promotion to a larger, more powerful diocese.

More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be executed. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim, and their steadfastness to their consciences put them in conflict with the king. They were convicted of treason.

FROM THE PASTOR

It is good to love one's country, but ultimate loyalty is due only to Christ and his kingdom. St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher show us what faithful citizenship looks like. They loved and served their country. In the moments just before his execution, More is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." They never rose up to incite rebellion or foment revolution. They were no traitors. But when the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they submitted to Christ. These men gave their lives for the freedom of the Church and for freedom of conscience. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul. May their example continue to illuminate the path for us, as we seek to faithfully serve our Church and country.

We ask for the intercession of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, that we too would be good servants to our country, but God's first!

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

I have been looking forward to hearing today's Gospel proclaimed ALL WEEK, because this week's Gospel is one of my favorite scripture passages of all time.

In this week's Gospel, we hear the story of Jairus and his daughter. Jairus, a follower of Jesus, asks for Jesus to come with him to heal his daughter, who is very close to death. On their way to Jairus' house, they receive word that Jairus' daughter has already passed on. Jesus tells Jairus to have faith, and insists on seeing his daughter. Upon seeing her, Jesus stretches out His hand, and says, "Talitha kum", which translates to "Little girl, I say to you arise".

"Girl, rise up". I cannot even begin to tell all of you how much this scripture verse has appeared, reappeared, and has stayed with me throughout my life. It is a verse that has reminded me that we are called by Christ for a specific purpose, even when we think that our time with a certain task is finished. It has pushed me and propelled me to keep going, through the Call of God the Father. I also find it so appropriate that we hear this Gospel during this month that we celebrate fatherhood; The life of Jairus' daughter was made possible not only because of the power of Christ and God the Father, but was also made possible because of the love of her own father; A father who, as I'm sure so many of you have either felt or received, loved his little girl so much that he would go to the ends of what seemed impossible for the sake of protecting his family.

FORMED Recommendations

This upcoming week, our Church celebrates a special Feast Day; The Feast of Saint Peter and Saint Paul; Two of the early fathers of the Catholic Church!

Although their relationship started off as rocky, their collaboration and their working together gave us such a gift in what we know about the early traditions and practices of the Early Church, which connects to us today.

To celebrate this Feast Day, my FORMED recommendation to all of you this week is "Saint Peter", a full-length movie about Saint Peter and his experience in leading the Early Church, spreading the Gospel, and eventually meeting Saint Paul. These two men truly make an incredible team!

Use the QR code to the left to take you directly to the film; Just scan with your phone in the camera app to start watching, and enjoy!

This week, please join with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill, and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

Director of Parish Social Ministry

I would like to thank Bob Corsentino for his very generous donation of a commercial refrigerator! We should be receiving it next week. So one down and one more to go!

We also received a donation of one wheeled grocery cart. Actually I still need two. I have two more people who have no cars and walk everywhere. This would be a great help to them.

We still need volunteers that can visit with the elderly.

We do have some people who can deliver food to those no longer able to get to the pantry. So right now this is not a need.

I still need the housing. So please let me know if you hear of anything. If anyone knows of a one or two bedroom apartment that may be available in the near future please reach out to me. This is for three adults. A couple and their adult son. The wife has cancer and is undergoing chemotherapy. They are currently in a shelter in Wading River. However, her doctors are here in Deer Park and before they lost their home were residents of Deer Park. It is very difficult for them to keep traveling here for her appointments as she is quite ill. The most they can pay is $1600/mo.

My second request is for a young couple that is pregnant and homeless. They are in need of a one bedroom or even a studio apartment for up to $1000/mo.

Housing is very hard to come by in the present environment.

If you would be kind enough to pass these requests along to the community I would be very grateful.

Let us always be guided not by what Jesus would do but rather what Jesus wants us to do.

God Bless you abundantly for your generosity.

Janet
