31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 31, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

The STATE OF THE PARISH is paused this week. Part 4 and part 5 will be published on the weekend of November 7th and November 14th.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Next weekend, we will have speakers at all Masses to talk to us about the importance of supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

"Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island."

There are many actual stories that we hear that testify to how the CMA touches people's lives. They are found in testament stories at www.drvc.org/cma. It is good to know that if we reach 100% of our parish goal, whatever is in excess of 80% is given back to the parish. And so, it helps worthwhile ministries that we as Church in Long Island need to fund, and the parish receives an incentive as well.

FROM THE PASTOR

ALL SAINTS' DAY & ALL SOULS' DAY

Please join us in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on November 1 Feast of All Saints. This day is dedicated to all the Saints, who from a canon/criteria followed by the Church are recognized to have reached our final heavenly destination. They are models for us who continue to journey in this earthly life and also intercessors of heavenly favors.

Generally, All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day, with the usual dispensations for valid reasons such as illness. All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV. He also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

November 2, All Souls' Day celebrates those who have passed. It is a day for commemoration of all the faithful departed. It has been a parish custom at the concelebrated Mass on this day to mention those from our parish who have passed away in the past year, whose names are written in the Book of the Dead.

Masses for November 1, All Saints' Day are 7:00 am, 8:30 am and 12:15 pm. Masses for November 2, All Souls' Day are 7:00 am, 8:30 am, 12:15 pm and a concelebrated Mass at 7:00 pm.

Fr Gius Garcia

Family Faith Formation and Religious Education

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

These last few months in the world of Family Faith Formation have been filled with so much that anyone looking in from the outside has not seen. From recruiting Catechists to teach your children's classes based on the time that they are so graciously giving, scheduling all of our students' classes while taking into account the availability choices that our families provided to us, ordering materials, meeting with multiple different people to discuss how to share and book certain spaces, and countless other logistics, our entire Family Faith Formation Office Staff has been putting in countless hours day in and day out (weekends included) to get ready for a year that no one is more excited to start than us. I, Ms. Alessandra Laucella, and Mrs. Danielle Muller are extremely grateful and appreciative for the countless support, prayers, and positivity that have been sent our way through all of it.

I am SO EXCITED to share that as this coming week, all of our families should be checking their mailboxes for their OFFICIAL WELCOME LETTER to kick off this year's program! This is a testament to not only the incredibly hard work of our Staff, but also to the faithfulness and advocacy of the Holy Spirit. Please continue to pray for us (and to check your emails!)

FORMED Recommendations

This week, we celebrate two special days in the Catholic Church; All Saints Day on November 1st, and All Souls Day on November 2nd. All Saints Day reminds us of all of the holy men and women who answered God's Call to do great things for Christ, all while being regular human beings; Just like all of us. These holy men and women are incredible role models of faith, devotion, and complete trust in God's Plan for their lives; The way that they lived their lives inspires us to be the best that we can be, and knowing that they are interceding for us from Heaven is such an incredible gift. Make sure to spend some time in prayer with your favorite Saints this week!

All Souls Day is the day when we remember all of our loved ones who have already gone home to God in Heaven. Although this day can be a tough one for many of us, it is a day that also calls for celebration. This day reminds us that our loved ones have gained the prize that all of us strive for since the day that we are conceived; Our purpose of life is to live our lives like Christ, and when we have completed this mission, it is at that time that God calls us home. We all miss our loved ones so very dearly on this day, but think of all of them being embraced by Jesus and living forever in the Communion of Saints; What an incredibly overwhelming and righteous image!

In honor of these two very special days, my recommendations for all of our families this week are "The Saints: Our Heavenly Friends" and "All Souls Day", both from the Brother Francis Collection. To watch, scan each QR code with your phone in the camera app!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4 FROM 12:00 NOON TO 6:00 PM IN THE CHURCH
EXPOSITION AND VENERATION OF FIRST CLASS RELICS OF OVER
250 SAINTS

5:30 PM - SPIRITUAL TALK
ON THE FASCINATING EXPERIENCE OF THE SACRED RELICS

As we celebrate All Saints' Day, I am happy to offer to everyone a unique opportunity to venerate and pray to over 250 First Class Relics of Saints. These are personal collections under the care of two friends from the Archdiocese of Newark: Fr Manolo Punzalan, Pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish in Mahwah and Fr. Ryan dela Pena, administrator of Immaculate Heart of Mary/St. Patrick Church in Elizabeth, NJ. Both have graciously allowed us to have them exposed for veneration here in our parish. Fr Ryan has also agreed to give us a spiritual talk about the catholic practice of veneration of relics.

There are three classes of sacred relics. The first-class is a part of the saints body. The second-class is a piece of the saints clothing or something used by the saint, while the third-class is an object which has been touched to a first-class relic.

The veneration of relics of the saints is found in the early history of the Church. A letter written by the faithful of the Church in Smyrna in the year 156 provides an account of the death of St. Polycarp, their bishop, who was burned at the stake. The letter reads, "We took up the bones, which are more valuable than precious stones and finer than refined gold, and laid them in a suitable place, where the Lord will permit us to gather ourselves together as we are able, in gladness and joy, and celebrate the birthday of his martyrdom." Other accounts attest that the faithful visited the burial places of the saints and miracles occurred.

In a technological age, the whole idea of relics may seem strange. Yet we are reminded that we treasure things that have belonged to someone we love—a piece of clothing, a personal item, a lock of hair. Those "relics" remind us of the love we share with that person while he was still living and even when the loved one passed. Our hearts are torn when we think about disposing of the very personal things of a deceased loved one.

Relics remind us of the holiness of saints and their cooperation in God's work. Moreso, relics inspire us to ask for the saints' intercessory prayers and to beg the grace of God to live the same kind of faith-filled life

SAINTS ARE OUR FRIENDS

Saints have been Catholics' companions on our faith journeys since the earliest days of Christianity. Catholics are fortunate to have so many friends. We have a close, personal, intimate relationship with our favorite saints. We trust our favorite saints, we have confidence in them, we regard them as faithful friends who stand ready to use their influence on our behalf. How do the saints exert their influence? They pray with us, they pray for us and they present our petitions to God, whom they see face to face. It is a remarkable thing, that glorified souls in heaven are willing to come to the assistance of sinful souls here on earth.

Our friendship with the saints is rooted in a theological concept: the Communion of Saints. But what is it? The short answer is the Catholic Church is the Communion of Saints. We here on earth, the souls in purgatory and the souls in heaven are all united in one sacred community. All of us in the Communion of Saints share a common faith — it is one of two things that bind us together. The second bond is charity, in the sense of compassion. It is compassion that moves us on earth and the saints in heaven to pray for the souls in purgatory, to hasten their time of purification so they can reach the glory of God's kingdom. Compassion also moves the saints to intercede for us, pleading with Almighty God to assist us in times of trouble and grant us the graces we need to remain faithful to him so we can be united with him forever in heaven. We know that great saints, on their deathbed, actually looked forward to the good they could do for us once they reached heaven. "Do not weep," the dying St. Dominic told his brother Dominicans, "for I shall be more useful to you after my death and I shall help you more effectively than during my life."

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - "We Help People"

Jesus tells us: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength . . . and you shall love your neighbor yourself." Through your support of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you can show your love for the Lord and your love of your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened. This past month, we have helped three individuals/families to pay their rent, we arranged for an emergency delivery of oil to a family, and we have helped an individual forced out of her apartment to pay storage charges so she would not lose her personal property. All this has been made possible by the generous financial support received from our Parish community. Both Vincentian and neighbor are also blessed and supported by your most beautiful spiritual gift of prayer. All support is greatly appreciated.

Once again, remember that the Christmas Holiday Fair is returning on Sunday, November 28, 2021. This will be the perfect opportunity to buy unique holiday crafts and gifts made locally. The Fair is also the most important fundraising event of the year for our Parish conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. It generates funds which we use to help our neighbors in Deer Park and North Babylon. If you are a vendor who would like to participate, or if you can volunteer your time on that day to help run the fair, please call Mike at 917-705-5355.

If you or someone you know is in need of assistance in addressing rent, mortgage, utilities or other crucial bill arrears, or needs assistance with furniture, clothing or dental needs, please email us at sscmstvincentdepaul@gmail.com or call us at (631) 667-4044 ext 175.

Those interested in donating furniture should call (631) 858-0380. Bins for clothing donations are available in the parking lot on the north side of the Church.

Happy Fall Everyone!

This week I have a new request. I would like each of you to think about a neighbor, a friend someone you had a brief conversation with in the grocery store who is lonely and has no one to celebrate the holiday's with.

Please call me or drop me a note letting me know who they are and how to get in touch with them (with their permission of course).

It is so important that we do not allow anyone or any family to feel that no one cares for them. We do care. We do want to welcome them. This is not about being monetarily poor. Of course we are always going to take care of our poor. I am talking about people who are in need of caring, people who are in spiritual need and those hungry for people to notice that they are lonely. Lonely people rarely reach out.

When my husband was transferred to California from New York we were 3 thousand miles away from family and friends. Our family was very lonely. For the first time we were alone for the holiday's. Then our new parish had an open invitation for people and families to come to the parish to share a meal. We made many friends and not only friends that were in our situation but also people that were the volunteers at that meal. We met single people, widows, widowers, families all from different walks of life. You would probably be surprised at how many people are just waiting for someone to reach out and care. So, please reach out to me so we can welcome people into a very loving and caring community that we call Ss. Cyril and Methodius.

We are going to have such a meal here at the parish. More details to follow! Do your part and let me know who the people in the community are that we would love to welcome and get to know!

God Bless you all!

"No matter how much you live the experiences of these years of your youth, you will never know their deepest and fullest meaning unless you encounter each day your best friend, the friend who is Jesus"

Pope Francis

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal creates pathways to faith for our Youth and lay leaders who catechize them. This is multi-level evangelization and Dramatic Mission Growth in action!

INSPIRE is a new initiative designed to invite young people to embrace their Catholic faith and deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ, as well as to encourage renewal in outreach to teenagers in parish communities throughout the Diocese. Three "hub" parishes – St. Barnabas in Bellmore, St. John the Evangelist in Riverhead, and St. Joseph in Babylon – are hosting a series of INSPIRE Youth Nights over the next year. The nights will consist of Eucharistic Adoration with praise and worship and inspiring talks, followed by games and refreshments. Each hub parish has a unique team of veteran youth ministers, worship leaders, and faithful young adults who will facilitate the night. The initiative officially kicked off on Friday, October 8th at St. Barnabas, with the other locations offering theirs in the weeks that follow.

The Office of Youth Ministry has been hosting information sessions for parish leaders to learn and discuss how they can make the most of the initiative. Youth ministers, catechetical leaders, priests, parents, and other adult leaders will have the opportunity to accompany the youth (grades 8-12) of their parish to each INSPIRE night and use the event as a vehicle to build relationships with the teens and their families. Local follow-up to these nights is encouraged and some resources will be provided.

"The pandemic has obviously brought new challenges and obstacles to youth evangelization efforts around Long Island. INSPIRE is designed to bring young people together safely for prayer, catechesis, and fellowship, as well as to sow the seeds of evangelization for each parish group that attends, so that we can all be in a better place to build up young disciples in the Diocese of Rockville Centre." – Nolan Reynolds, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry
