2nd SUNDAY of EASTER

April 24, 2022

Last week, Easter Sunday saw a very good turn out in the attendance at all Masses. It truly felt like "the stone that covered the tomb" has been rolled away as people have come to Church from being locked down at home to celebrate faith in the community of faithful as Jesus is risen from the dead. It was truly a joyful and heartwarming sight to behold. I am grateful as well for the humbling generosity that you showed in your financial support for your parish. We pray that this upward trend continues while not keeping our guards down, continuing to be cautious and not failing to follow safety guidelines.

This weekend is 2nd Sunday of Easter and we know it as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Image of The Divine Mercy represents the risen Christ whose hands and feet bear the marks of the Crucifixion. From the diary

Let us welcome Bishop Robert Coyle, Auxiliary Bishop in charge of the Vicariate to which our parish belongs. He will preside at the 8:00 am Mass.

of Mother Faustina in her conversation with Jesus, we read: "The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. ... These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross" (Diary, 299). In other words, these two rays signify the sacraments of mercy (Baptism and Penance), and the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the blood of souls, carrying life-sustaining food for our spiritual journey. The water is analogous to the sacraments of Baptism and Penance, in that through these sacraments our souls are washed clean.

PRAYER TO THE DIVINE MERCY

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

O Greatly Merciful God, Infinite Goodness, today all mankind calls out from the abyss of its misery to Your mercy — to Your compassion, O God; and it is with its mighty voice of misery that it cries out. Gracious God, do not reject the prayer of this earth's exiles! O Lord, Goodness beyond our understanding, Who are acquainted with our misery through and through, and know that by our own power we cannot ascend to You, we implore You: anticipate us with Your grace and keep on increasing Your mercy in us, that we may faithfully do Your holy will all through our life and at death's hour. Let the omnipotence of Your mercy shield us from the darts of our salvation's enemies, that we may with confidence, as Your children, await Your [Son's] final coming — that day known to You alone. And we expect to obtain everything promised us by Jesus in spite of all our wretchedness. For Jesus is our Hope: through His merciful Heart, as through an open gate, we pass through to heaven (Diary, 1570).

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

Happy Easter Octave! These first eight days of Easter are filled with so many beautiful Gospel passages, all with the same theme; Encounter. From the three women witnessing an angel at the empty tomb, to Mary Magdalene being the first to see the Risen Christ, to Jesus walking with two of His disciples on the road to Emmaus, to Him showing His apostles His Wounds, the encounters that fill this time period after the Resurrection are ones of not only great joy, but also of great trust. For the ones who mourned Jesus after His Death, this time must have been so overwhelming for them after so many conflicting emotions in the short span of a week; The excitement of Palm Sunday, the confusion of feet being washed after being told that their bread was now flesh, the devastation of Good Friday, the silence of Holy Saturday, and the joy of that first Easter morning. Throughout it all, Jesus' Mother, friends, and followers all had the strength to trust, even when the final outcome seemed far from sight.

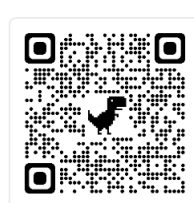

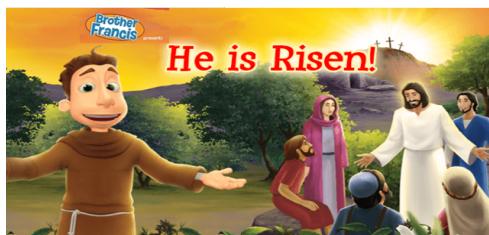

The Easter Octave concludes with Divine Mercy Sunday, a Feast day that is so beautifully tied to Saint Faustina. She had visions of Jesus, and wrote about her encounters with Him in her diary. In these moments with Faustina, Jesus conveyed to her His great mercy for humankind, and all who seek it. The Image of Christ in these visions has been venerated over the last century, and the inscription that Christ requested under the Image, "Jesus, I trust in You!" has become a mantra to so many. May this last day of the Easter Octave be one that is filled with joy, and a day that reminds of how deeply Christ wants us to seek encounter with Him; All we have to do is trust in His Mercy and His great Love for us.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - "We Help People"

On April 23, 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was founded in Paris by a group of students resolved to respond to Christ's call by dedicating themselves to the poor after the example of St. Vincent de Paul. The Society expanded to the United States in 1846. From its humble origins, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has become a worldwide organization of over 800,000 members dedicated to the spiritual advancement of its members and to providing assistance to the poor and needy. Today, our Parish conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul follows this tradition of the founders of the Society by being determined not only to provide material assistance, but also to bring friendship and understanding to our neighbors in need. Your generous support allows us to help our struggling neighbors in Deer Park and North Babylon celebrate the peace of Easter by assisting them financially and spiritually. The money donated in this Sunday's collection is vital in providing the means to assist our neighbors in need. If you are unable to use the special collection envelope provided by the Parish, you can mail your check payable to "The Society of St. Vincent de Paul" to the Parish, in an envelope addressed to the attention of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for your support. If you would like more information on the Society and volunteer opportunities please call us at 631-667-4044 ext. 175.

Director of Parish Social Ministry

Hello again everyone!

Just when we thought it was spring..... (this is me smiling). It really will be spring or summer before long...right??

I want to say thank you to the Knights of Columbus for the 25 hams they donated so our food pantry clients could have a nice Easter dinner.

I also thank the parishioners for the Easter candy donations. (wow that was a lot of candy)

I hope everyone had a wonderful Easter. I am now so happy to be in the midst of the fifty days after Easter. To me this is the most Joyful period in the Church. Easter Sunday to Ascension Thursday to Pentecost Sunday! Let's remember to be joyful because we have such a wonderful gift that was given to us through our Lord Jesus and what is greater than that? Be kind to everyone and share the wonderful gift through your actions.

On that note I am still waiting to hear what programs you would like to see in the parish to recreate community and the wonderful parish spirit that I know exists here. Every single idea is welcome so please share!

God Bless you all,

Janet

We have been receiving refrigerated items in the bins. Please do not do this. We received ground beef and a whole chicken in the bin. They leaked on the other food. By the time we are able to empty the bins on Monday morning any refrigerated items have to be thrown out. Please call me to make arrangements for these items to be donated. This is very important.

PANTRY NEEDS:

Please do not purchase items in the big box stores most of our families are really small. Regular sized items from regular grocery stores such as Stop and Shop, Shoprite, Aldi (you can get quite a lot there reasonably) or Lidl

Building a Community of Love

"You pray for the hungry. Then you feed them. This is how prayer works."

-Pope Francis

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports Catholic Charities pastoral programs to bring care and love to those in need. These services include housing for the vulnerable, mental health and substance abuse programs, food programs and advocacy. Below is a highlight of its Parish Social Ministry.

We all have been touched by the rising inflation rate – close to 8% on Long Island. The spike in gas and food prices combined with the high cost of housing has caused a shift of people who are turning to their local parish outreach for assistance.

"There are many families working in our community and they do not qualify for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits -- they are struggling to purchase the basic necessities. They are the new clients of our parish outreach." Paula Malloy, Director of PSM, Catholic Charities of Long Island.

Catholic Charities provides support and resources to local parish social ministry efforts on Long Island through several programs.
