"It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

And still: "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

Jesus did not leave the disciples alone in this Great Commission; not in the least. He promised to send a “helper” to strengthen and intercede for all his followers: the Holy Spirit. It was, and is, the Holy Spirit who guides the Church and fills Jesus’ followers with his power, enabling them to share the Gospel until the day Jesus returns. As Pope John Paul II has explained, when Jesus ascended into heaven, two significant events in particular happened: Jesus gave his followers instructions on how they were to live, and he left them with a promise. He directed the disciples to spread the message of the Gospel to the ends of the earth, declaring the good news of salvation.

The Ascension serves as an ultimate demonstration of Jesus’ power over death, inaugurating his reign over heaven and earth as the Living King.

Please note that this Feast Day is a Holy day of obligation. A Vigil Mass will be celebrated on the day before, May 25 at 5:00 pm. On the day of the feast, we will have the regular schedule of Masses at 7:00 am, 8:30 am and 12:15 pm. There is NO 7:00 pm Mass.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - "We Help People"

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." In addition to individuals, we have received support from a generous donation from the Columbiettes and from the donations made on Divine Mercy Sunday. We also thank everyone who donates to the Parish Poor Box, as a portion of these proceeds go to support our mission.

Director of Parish Social Ministry

Hello again. I hope everyone has had a good if not great week. I know for me if I start every day with a positive attitude my day and my week turn out fine no matter what else may be going on. I am always in awe of the volunteers for their wonderful acts of charity and spirit of giving. There is a woman that I know that does not have the easiest life, however, you would never know it. She always has a smile and a kind word. This is what keeps me inspired and going.

I have completed the bereavement facilitator course. I am looking forward to offering this very important resource to our community. At the end of the letter, I am going to give you all the ways you can contact me. One of the things I need to hear is when you think would be the best times to meet.

We will also be starting a cancer support group. Stay tuned. If you would also address when you think this groups meeting time would be most beneficial that would be appreciated as well.

What other groups have you been wishing to see here at Ss. Cyril and Methodius. Either new groups entirely or restarting groups that were here at one time.

We are working on mental health and are looking forward to addressing this pressing need in our parish and the whole community.

I believe everyone has something to contribute to the parish so please don't keep it a secret. I really want to hear your thoughts on anything and everything. Don't be shy.

You can contact me through the parish phone number extension 105, you can leave me a note in the collection basket, you can drop a note at the rectory, you can come by and see me or you can email me at socialministry@sscmdp.org. I will be waiting to hear your thoughts and wishes.

In the meantime, God Bless you and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Janet

As Catholics, we all hold dear the responsibility of bringing our young people into our family of faith and guiding them on a lifelong journey with Christ.

One opportunity to nurture their faith is by supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Every day, young people in Catholic Campus Ministry are actively committing to their faith and living lives filled with joyful service. Young men and women are participating in programs like Camp Quo Vadis (Latin for "Where are you going?"), which has as its core purpose to help young people listen to God's voice, answer questions about future vocations and prepare the way for their leadership in the Church.

"I decided to participate because of the Eucharist. It is the center of my faith and it calls me to do so much that I do. I had never been to a retreat before, so I wanted to experience what that was like. I don't want to make the mistake of having my faith be just a part of my life like music or sports. I want it to guide me through my life and be the reason I do things."

– Sean, participant Quo Vadis

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is also important for so many other ministries and programs that involve our children. Are you aware that collectively parish-based religious education programs serve more than 100,000 of our young people in public schools? Similarly, youth and young adult ministry programs serve more than 5,000 each month.

Your support helps to inspire young adults to journey together as they continue to find Christ in their lives.

Please know that I thank you most sincerely for your consideration of this special request to make a gift to the 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please know that no gift is too small, and every gift makes a difference in the lives of our young people - the now and the future of our Catholic Church.
