4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 29, 2023

Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God.

We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

"Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard

Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.

Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, having many possessions, and so on. When we think this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. The crowd that day also associated happiness with material possessions and status.

FROM THE PASTOR

Talk as a family about what it means to be happy or to be blessed. Make a list of traits that you would associate with a happy person. Then read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12a. Reflect on Jesus' description of happiness. Think about what each of the Beatitudes might have in common and write a family summary of the Beatitudes. Post the summary in a special place as a reminder of what your family will consider "true happiness."

Conclude by praying together prayers of petition based on the Beatitudes, e.g., "We pray that we will be peacemakers who seek to get along with other people even when this is difficult. We pray to the Lord." All respond: "Lord, hear our prayer."

We remember how you loved us...

Weekly Greeting from Ms. Laucella

As we wrap up the end of January and get ready for February, we are looking forward to so many things that this second half of the year brings! This is a very exciting time, and is just before the start of one of our busiest times of our Faith Formation year. Please keep our Office Staff, Catechists, students, and families in your prayers!

Happy Candlemas!

This Thursday, February 2nd is the Feast of Candlemas, or the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord! This is the day when Mary, according to Jewish law, went to the Temple in Jerusalem to be purified forty days after giving birth. This is also the celebration in where Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple to have Him named and be presented as a firstborn child.

On this day, two prophets, Simeon and Anna, were present. Anna had prophesized that Jesus would be presented in the Temple. At this moment, Simeon had a prophecy of his own; That Jesus would be the cause of both the rising and downfall of many, and that Mary's heart would be "pierced by a sword", foretelling Mary's broken heart at the eventual Crucifixion of her Son.

This is the Feast Day that officially wraps up the Christmas Season, and is one of my favorite days of the year. Not only does it solidify the Glory of Christ's Birth, but it also reminds us of the reason of why He came to Earth.

REMINDER: Level 8 Student & Parent Meeting Rescheduled

As a reminder, our Confirmation Student and Parent meeting has been rescheduled to Tuesday, February 7th. This Tuesday, January 31st, Session B of Level 8 will meet, as listed on your original schedule. Level 8 parents, please check your emails for our message that was sent out for more details. We look forward to meeting with all of our Confirmation students and parents in a few weeks!

Scout Sunday

Next Sunday, February 5th is Scout Sunday! We are inviting all of our students who are in Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Eagle Scouts to come to our 9:30am Family Mass in their uniforms to receive a special blessing with their Troops; I myself was a Girl Scout, and watching our young people give back to the community, while learning important life skills is so incredibly important, and something that they and their families should be very proud of. We cannot wait to celebrate you next Sunday!
