"They gradually realized from the outside the change that had been made inwardly in his soul." [Autobiography of St. Ignatius 10]

The first impression one gleans from the Shrine of Loyola in the Basque Country in Spain is that it was once home to a great and historic hero. The basilica rises up imposingly in the middle of the valley in contrast to the farmsteads so typical of the region. The high altar, with its marble altarpiece and fine inlays, is presided over by a magnificent statue of St. Ignatius, appearing triumphant and glorious. The side altars, the organ, and ornate dome bestow on the whole a note of solemn grandiosity. But, to the surprise of visitors, the guides who show them around the shrine never fail to invite them, as they leave the basilica, to see its "jewel."

Passing through a side door marked "the holy house," they enter the discreet, austere house concealed by the vast architecture of the shrine, where St. Ignatius was born. And there it is, invisible from the outside yet nourishing the shrine's very soul. Half built of stone and half from brick, a consequence of futile battles, it begins to narrate a less glorious story. The next thing the visitor will see is a statue showing a wounded, failing Ignatius. Going up the stairs, one sees a depiction of his wild youth and his protector's fall from grace... Further up still are the family quarters and the memory of the mother we are not sure Ignatius ever knew... finally on the top floor we arrive at the rooms of the children of the family, where the "chapel of conversion" is found: an austere, simple, serene place which testifies to the passage of God through the life of this wounded man, who reposed there, entertained in between his knightly fantasies by reading the life of Christ and those of the saints. The "jewel of the place" reminds us who is guiding us. Above the altar is an inscription in Basque and Spanish that reads: "Here, Íñigo de Loyola gave himself to God." Here lies its value. In this discreet spot, God began to open a path in the heart of a wounded man, thus beginning the process of conversion which has touched the lives of so many.

FROM THE PASTOR

PRAYER POINTS

+ The composition of place. Think of people you know who have experienced, despite their wounds or because of them, the Lord's invitation and call to fullness of life.

+ Grace to ask for. Lord, give me a courageous and open outlook so that I may recognize you at work in my life and in the life of many others.

+ First point. Dwell on experiences of conversion, whether small or large, in your personal faith story.

BIBLE TEXTS

Ephesians 1:3–14. What do you feel when you read that you are loved prior to any effort or merit on your part? And what if the purpose of your life were to offer to the world the love you have received freely? What would this change for you? Where would you focus your efforts on a daily basis?

Jeremiah 18:1–6. The invitation of the prophet Jeremiah is to allow ourselves to be molded by the Lord. How do you cope with times of vulnerability? Do they become times when you turn inwards, or do they stir up a longing to trust others? Which of your experiences of God have helped you grow in trust with him?

Luke 5:1–11. “Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!” Those were the words of Peter to Jesus after the miraculous catch of fish. Jesus invited Peter to be a “fisher of men.” Are you willing to hear the Lord's invitations? What is he inviting you to do? What have been the fruits of allowing yourself to be led by him in times of despair?

Colloquy. Speak to Mary, tell her about the desires and longings you have in your personal process of faith and ask her to obtain for you the grace from her Son so that you may grow in trust regarding his call and invitations. Finish with an Our Father and a Hail Mary. Do not forget to examine what you have experienced during the prayer time.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - "We Help People"

In today's Gospel, Jesus supersedes both the apostles' and the crowds' expectations: with little he feeds many...Jesus is the sign of God's lavish presence and love. Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is indeed a sign of God's love to the lonely and the poor.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? We meet twice a month. The members visit in pairs to those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. If interested in joining this much needed ministry, please call 631-667-4044 ext. 175 and leave a message.

Is there a family or someone you know who may need assistance in addressing rent, utilities or other crucial bill arrears, or needs assistance with furniture or clothing, please have them email us at sscmstvincentdepaul@gmail.com or call and leave a message at 631-667-4044 ext. 175. You will receive a call back from one of our volunteers using a blocked number. Please answer the phone so we are able to assist you if we can.

If you would like to donate clothing, the bins on the north side parking lot of the church are for clothing only. To donate furniture, please call 631-858-0380 or visit <http://www.svdpli.org> for additional information.

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

Please make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Parish Social Ministry

We are looking for volunteers that can go to Stanley's Bakery in East Islip on Friday evenings at 5:30 p.m. to pick up donations. Then bring them to Parish Social Ministry on Saturday morning. This would not be every week. Even though we do get donations every week we are trying not to over burden one person.

We are also looking for a volunteer that can go to Island Harvest in Melville on Wednesday mornings at 8:30 a.m. to pick up donations and bring them to Parish Social Ministry (the former convent building)

We must point out once again that any items left in the breezeway or near the church doors that must be refrigerated have to be thrown out. We have no way of knowing how long they have been unrefrigerated and cannot ever take a chance with anyone's health. If you would like to bring refrigerated items you can call me, and I will meet you. Even if it is after hours you can call me. Although I don't live in the parish I will come from Wantagh if I am able. My cell phone number for the parish is 631-275-7116. It is always disheartening to have to throw food out when food is getting harder and harder to get.

We are always in need of the things that are not covered by SNAP benefits. This includes all paper products, hygiene products, dishwashing detergent (we don't need laundry detergent at this time thankfully) shampoo, body wash, and soap. If you use it they probably do also.

We do not need ketchup at this time, we need mayo, sugar, flour, salt, and vegetable oil.

Please keep us in your prayers as you are in ours.

Janet
