NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

November 3-9, 2024

Promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer, invitation, and education.

National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer, invitation, and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. For social media posts, use #NationalVocationAwarenessWeek or #NVAW. Please avail yourself of the many resources NRVC offers to help promote NVAW in your community, parish, school, or campus ministry office.

The new interactive vocation resource showcases today's Catholic sisters, nuns, brothers, and priests, the Bold and Faithful Storymap: Meet Today's Religious.

This storymap is designed for use by individuals considering a religious vocation and for parishes, campuses, and classrooms to promote vocations and connect those in religious life to everyday Catholics.

Featuring audio, video, articles, an interactive events calendar, and a religious institute map, the 2024 Bold and Faithful storymap is a companion resource, along with 2021 Religious Life Today storymap, to the NRVC's 2020 Study on Recent Vocations to Religious Life.

FROM THE PASTOR

As we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, our Lectionary skips a chapter that helps set the context for today's reading. If we were to read the sections skipped (chapter 11 and part of chapter 12), we would hear about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, his cleansing of the Temple, and the questioning of Jesus' authority by the chief priests, scribes, and elders. The context, therefore, for this Gospel is Jesus' growing exposure before the Jewish authorities. Jesus is being questioned and tested by the Jewish authorities, yet the scribe who addresses Jesus in today's Gospel seems to be an admirer; he is not testing Jesus.

The question posed in today's Gospel requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of these commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus was not the only Jewish religious teacher to connect these two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. Both of these commandments were central elements of the religious tradition that Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed, these commandments continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor. Many believe, however, that this connection was heard in a new and fresh way when spoken by Jesus.

The scribe who questions Jesus in today's Gospel engages in a positive dialogue with Jesus. He agrees with Jesus' teaching that the commandments to love God and love neighbor stand above the commandment to offer worship and sacrifice in the Temple. With this dialogue, Jesus appears to close the debate with the Jewish authorities. Mark reports that no one dared to question Jesus further.

SAINTS CYRIL & METHODIUS ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

125 Half Hollow Rd, Deer Park, NY 11729

October 31, 2024

I am happy to announce that we have successfully raised the full amount of $49,202 in our campaign to raise what is being asked of us as our parish contribution to the settlement of the current Chapter 11 process connected with the CVA cases. We have remitted the amount this past week right on time and we are now praying and hoping that the final settlement hearing scheduled on December 3 will go smoothly. We pray that we may move on and move forward, compensate those who deserve it, and likewise begin rebuilding ourselves once again as a Church in Long Island and continue our mission to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ.

When I say that people in this parish are truly generous, it is really an understatement. People here always go over and beyond and continue to redefine what generosity is about. I am humbled by your love and commitment for your parish and making sure we continue to exist and look forward to a bright future ahead of us.

For sure, there are still more and there will always be challenges that we will face ahead of us. But I think, we can be hopeful and positive that we learn from our past mistakes, take responsibility for them, make sure that we are more vigilant so that the worst of our past is not repeated and find ways of safeguarding our people. More importantly let us work together as one Church hand in hand, and surely we can confidently hurdle all the obstacles that we will face together.

Let us join and continue to pray for one another, to pray for our parish and our diocese, that we may be emboldened more to continue the mission given by our Master Jesus Christ to live and proclaim the Kingdom of God here and now.

In Opus Ministerii,

Fr Gius F Garcia

New York's PROPOSITION ONE: so-called Equal Rights Amendment

What the Media doesn't want you to know about the proposed equality amendment are the changes to the language of it.

It will create a constitutional right to "reproductive healthcare and autonomy" for "persons."

Notably absent from its text are the words and phrases "MINOR," "PARENT," "CONSCIENCE," and "LATE TERM."

We need to understand the real-life legal ramifications of this poorly written one size fits all amendment.

The proposed bill states: NYS Legislature bills: A1283 and S108A

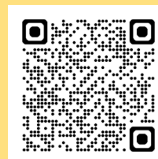

"No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws of this state and any subdivision thereof. No person shall, because of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, creed, religion, or sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, pregnancy outcomes, and reproductive healthcare and autonomy, be subject to discrimination in their civil rights by any other person or by any firm, corporation, or institution, or by any agency or subdivision of the state, pursuant to law."

This "Equality Amendment" could empower unaccountable state judges and bureaucrats to:

- DISCRIMINATE against BABIES, EVEN IN THE NINTH MONTH OF PREGNANCY, by denying their right to life by endorsing their killing by abortion, including painful late term abortion, and by infanticide through intentional neglect if the baby is born alive after an attempted abortion.
- DISCRIMINATE against social workers, educators and health care workers, INCLUDING DOCTORS AND NURSES by denying them state licenses if they refuse to do abortion referrals.
- DISCRIMINATE against PARENTS by denying parents the right to require their consent for their minor age daughters being given an abortion while requiring the consent of parents for their minor age daughters being given an aspirin.
- DISCRIMINATE (IN FAVOR OF ABORTIONISTS) by awarding abortionists the PRIVILEGE of operating without the health and safety regulations lifesaving surgeons and pharmacists must adhere to.

This "Equality Amendment" can empower unaccountable state judges and bureaucrats to regulate, harass, fine and prosecute public pro-life witnessing and crisis pregnancy centers out of existence as violators of the "Civil Right" of "Reproductive Healthcare and Autonomy."

Parish Social Ministry

Here is the latest news from Parish Social Ministry.

We have said before we are more than a Food pantry.

We have a program here called learning life skills for young adults with various levels of need to learn to navigate life that may not always be easy for them. On Monday's they come to Parish Social Ministry where they use the kitchen to prepare meals, learn how to prep the meals, navigate recipes, learn how to shop for the ingredients and clean the kitchen. They then eat the meal they just prepared.

After that endeavor some of them are also involved in RPM classes. I will ask Kristen the facilitator for the program to give me an official description, so I don't misspeak.

The tags for the Christmas gifts will be ready soon. I am doing my best to give everyone more time to shop for the families.

May God Bless you all!

Janet
