5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 9, 2025

To serve as background, in the verses that precedes this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus travels to the town of Capernaum and begins his ministry of teaching and healing. While in Capernaum, Jesus cures a man possessed with a demon and heals Simon's mother-in-law. After spending some time there, Jesus prepares to preach in other places. The fact that Jesus had previously been in Simon's home and healed his mother-in-law suggests that this current encounter is not the first between Jesus and Simon Peter. We can read today's Gospel, therefore, as a description of the developing relationship between Jesus and Simon Peter.

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches from Simon's boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon protests, claiming that such an effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title "master." He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus' presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana, which we heard at Mass just a few weeks ago. Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus "Lord"—the title given to Jesus after his Resurrection—and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus' presence. Today's Gospel, therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter.

Two of Simon's partners are also named as witnesses to the event described in today's Gospel: Zebedee's sons, James and John. Yet Jesus' words are addressed only to Simon. Jesus gives Simon a new job, telling him that he will become a different kind of fisherman. No longer will he catch fish; instead he will catch people. In these words, we hear the beginning of the leadership role that Peter will have within the community of disciples. Peter was chosen for this role. His task will be to bring others to Jesus. Already he is doing so; the Gospel tells us that all the fishermen with Peter also left their nets and followed Jesus.

We continue to speak of Peter's leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the "successor of Peter." We participate in the mission of the Church when we bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives.

Parish Social Ministry

Thank you to Mrs. S's religious ed class for their donations to the pantry. Ryan, Aidan, Anthony B. Jayden, Michaela, Kyle, Liana, Kayden, Adrianna, Anthony S, Chris, Emma and Valeska.

As always we want to thank everyone for their continued generosity to Parish Social Ministry.

Each year Tom Donnelly writes a Suffolk County Grant for us to help us in our effort for Social Justice in our community. Also, Tony Manetta our Town of Babylon Councilman is a wonderful support for us. If you get a chance to meet them please express your gratitude for the help they extend to the Parish. We wish we could single out every single person who helps us because every single donation and prayer is wanted and needed.

We still need volunteers who speak Spanish both in the pantry and in the office. If anyone would like to volunteer to teach us Spanish it would be mostly conversation to ask questions for certification and to find out what their needs are. We are able to translate documents into text for bilingual use so it is not too necessary to read and write it. Our clients work very hard at learning English which I find admirable. English is difficult. I would like to reciprocate by at least being able to converse rudimentarily.

Mrs. S's Religious Education Class had a food donation project for our pantry. We would like to thank her and her students, Ryan, Aiden, Anthony B., Jayden, Michaela, Kyle, Liana, Kayden, Adrianna, Anthony S., Chris, Emma and Valeska.

Cub Scout Pack 112 from North Babylon had a food drive that was also a great help. We want to thank all the parents and the Scout Masters for helping the boys put it together. These young boys made a terrific effort in developing and implementing the food drive. Today is Scout Sunday and many of the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts who are members of Ss. Cyril & Methodius will most likely be at the 9:30 Mass. If you see them thank them.
