2nd SUNDAY of EASTER

April 27, 2025

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope John Paul II proclaimed that from that year forward the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God. St. Faustina (1905–1938) was born and raised in Poland. Following a vocation to religious life, she was accepted by the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. As a member of the Congregation, she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter. In her spiritual life, her contemplation on the Mercy of God led her to develop a childlike trust in God and deep love for her neighbor.

In her years in the convent, St. Faustina heard a call from God to make God's mercy known to the world so that the world may more fully receive God's healing grace. St. Faustina promoted the Chaplet of Divine Mercy which consists of the recitation of prayers to the Eternal Father with the use of the rosary for the sake of Christ's sorrowful passion.

The Chaplet is prayed as follows:

1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the Apostles' Creed.
2. On the Our Father beads, recite the following:
"Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."
3. On the ten Hail Mary beads, say the following:

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

EMPTY SPACE

Lyrics: Johnny Go, SJ

Music: Manoling Francisco, SJ

There's an empty space in your distant gaze,
and you may look away, the void still stays.
There's a hollow part in your weary heart,
and though you try again, no smile can hide your pain.
Fear not the night within. That's where My light begins, so you may one day see My face.
Only I can fill your days.

There's a raging storm in your broken soul,
and how you wish away your troubled days.
There's an open door at your deepest core,
and though you lose your way you'll still come home someday.
Fear not the noise within, that's where My voice begins,
so you may one day hear My song.
Only I can still your storms.

There's an empty room, there's a hidden wound:
this heart that burns for you, if only you knew.
You're the missing part in My yearning heart,
and I will stay around until the day you're found
May this, My whispered song, lead you to come back home
till we're no longer far apart.
Then will your laughter fill My heart.

"My name is Tess Austin. I am called to dedicate myself to evangelizing young people through reason, religion and loving kindness as a sister with the Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco."

Dear Parishioners,

It is my joy to share with you all that I have discerned a vocation to be a sister with the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians - Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco. I have been blessed by the Ss. Cyril and Methodius parish family in many ways through the years. I am thankful to have the opportunity to invite you all with me on this journey towards entering the next chapter of my life with Christ.

As a next step towards formation, the Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco and I have partnered with The Labouré Society, a Catholic non-profit 501(c)(3), to help overcome the obstacle of student loan debt by June 30th. I'm thankful for the support of Fr. Gius and the Ss. Cyril and Methodius parish staff in this work. I humbly ask my parish family here for prayers and support as my Labouré classmates and I work towards entering the next stage of formation.

If you would like to know more about my vocation journey and my work with The Labouré Society, I would love to speak with you individually. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me via email: Tess@rescuevocations.org or by phone: (631) 972-4091.

Parish Social Ministry

He is Risen Hallelujah! What a beautiful time in the church year we are in! We wish you all the most Blessed Easter.

What a beautiful gift we have in the Eucharist. What a blessing that God sent us his only son. Now we look forward to the gift of the Holy Spirit. My gosh, we are blessed to be a part of such a wonderful church!

We will be letting you know all the wonderful things we will be doing with Parish Social Ministry. As we have said, we are much more than the food pantry.

God Bless you for all you do to keep us in mind with the poor, chaotic social justice, and all the ministries in the parish.

Again, I invite you to come and get your heart we still have some left.

We still need Spanish-speaking volunteers. Also, we would welcome volunteers on any day. Also, you may not know that not all our volunteers are able to volunteer for the entire time that we are open. Some volunteers can only come for limited hours or even not every week. Please do not hesitate to volunteer if you only have limited time. We would still love to have you as part of our smaller community that is part of the larger community. We are all here to do God's work and help each other on the journey to heaven.

Have a joyous Easter!

FOR INFORMATION ON PRICES OF EACH ITEM, PLEASE CALL JOAN LORING AT

We are memorializing 2 Paschal Candles. These bees wax candles are consistently present and used in liturgies connected to Easter, and likewise during Funerals and Baptisms. We have ordered 2 as we have always done in the past since we always finish 1 in the middle of the liturgical cycle. The name of the person being remembered will be printed and pasted at the base of the Paschal candle.

(As of this publication, 1 Paschal Candle has already been taken for memorialization.)

We have also purchased matching vestments to be used for solemn liturgical celebrations with concelebrants such as on Easter, Christmas and other important Feasts and Solemnities. We have a Presider's chasuble, 3 Concelebrants chasubles and a Dalmatic for the deacon. For an extra cost, the name of the person to be memorialized may be embroidered on a cloth and sewn at inside back of the vestment.

We are also in the process of purchasing 2 sets of Stacking Ciboria with cover as we retire our older ones which are faded and worn out. You may wish to memorialize a whole set of 3 or just an individual ciborium. This is a good way to remember a family member or friend who has passed who served as a Extra Ordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist or someone who had a very strong dedication to the Holy Eucharist. For an extra cost, the name of the person being remembered maybe engraved at the base of the ciborium.

HELP US TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Every year through the support and commitment of individuals and organizations, we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables our Church to continue to form our youth and adults in the faith, promote the dignity of life, provide quality education to our young people, feed the hungry, and foster vocations to the priesthood.

Your generosity helps to make all of this, and so much more, possible!

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800 ext. 296.
