Trinity Sunday

June 15, 2025

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all. Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in the name of the Trinity; this is one of the clearest attestations for Baptism in the name of the Holy Trinity found in Scripture.

Important Update on the Holy Rosary Society of Saints Cyril & Methodius

At the meeting of the Holy Rosary Society on June 1, 2025, members who were present have unanimously decided to dissolve the board and its formal leadership and have consequently opted to redefine the organization as a group in its simplest and most humble form as women and men who gather regularly to pray the rosary privately as a group and leading the parish congregation once a month in Church. Its identity as a structured organization, governed by specific by-laws, is suspended while its members rediscover its core identity which is founded on their love for the Blessed Mother and their devotion to praying the Holy Rosary. In the future, there is still a possibility and openness to revert to it being a formal organization as the Spirit directs and moves its members. This is for the information of other members who were not able to attend the last meeting.

THE PARISH OFFICE 631-667-4044 extension 122 or email—jloring@sscmdp.org

We are memorializing an Ambry Set to contain the Sacred Chrism, the Oil for the Sick and the Oil for the Catechumens. They will be displayed in the glass tower case by the Baptismal font. These oils are used for Baptisms, Confirmations and the Anointing of the Infirmed and for the Viaticum or Extreme Unction.

We are happy to inform you that all 5 vestments have been taken for memorialization. The following are pictures of the embroidered patches to be sewn at the nape of the vestments. Thank you for your generosity!

We are happy to say that one set has been covered by an anonymous donor. One ciborium of the second set is in memory of IRENE DELPIANO. And one ciborium of the second set is donated by Anna Mancini on behalf of the FLAME OF LOVE PRAYER GROUP. WE NEED 1 MORE DONOR. This is a good way to remember a family member or friend who has passed who served as a Extra Ordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist or someone who had a very strong dedication to the Holy Eucharist. For an extra cost, the name of the person being remembered may be engraved at the base of the ciborium.

Parish Social Ministry

There is a sign on the Parish Social Ministry bulletin board in the office. It says, "Love God, Love Others, it's that simple. Simple does not mean easy. Goodness, that is a mouthful. It is not easy at all.

Here at Parish Social Ministry and throughout the entire Parish, as we are one family, we strive to keep in mind that the simplicity of the Lord's message is never easy. We are all here on a journey to help one another meet our Lord in Heaven.

With that in mind, we have requests to bring back volunteers who can take people to various appointments. Also, we have parishioners who need a ride to Mass and back home.

We still need Spanish-speaking volunteers.

Thank you, as always, for the generous support.

Have a blessed week.

Janet

Catholic Ministries Appeal

Renewed by the Eucharist
Sent on Mission

"Every family needs a father -- a father who shares in his family's joy and pain, hands down wisdom to his children and offers them firm guidance and love."
Pope Francis

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.

Respect Life

HAPPY FATHERS DAY

TO ALL OUR WONDERFUL FATHERS AND FATHERS TO BE!

PROTECT THE DIGNITY OF WOMAN

As Joseph refused to expose Mary to shame so too, we will become successful fathers by becoming guardians of the dignity and value of woman.

From the beginning of creation, the human father has been endowed with the distinct character of authority and the role of leader, regardless of whether he is the least qualified member of his family and regardless of what our broken world and its fallen prince would have him believe. Consider that St. Joseph was the "least perfect" member of the Holy Family, and yet the Church in her litany of praise to this exemplar father hails him as "Head of the Holy Family." Indeed, God does not call the qualified, but rather qualifies the called. The human father, in his essence, has nothing of which to be ashamed. To be ashamed of his God-given authority, the human father would have been ashamed of the God Who imparted that authority to him.

The human father assumes his charitable authority by protecting, providing for and teaching his family. By protecting, providing and teaching, the human father is loving by leading and leading by loving. If the human father chooses not to protect, provide for and teach his family, he is actually choosing not to love his family, and not to lead his family to Love.

By protecting, providing for and teaching, the human father authors the story of God's fatherly love in his family's life.

If you or someone you know needs assistance for a newborn, toddler, or expectant baby.
