Pentecost Sunday

June 8, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Let us pray for our boys and girls who will be confirmed at the 12:30 pm Mass this Sunday, as well as those who were confirmed last Friday May 30th. May they be inspired to exercise the gifts of the Holy Spirit given to them on the day of their Confirmation.

As we look out at the trees and flowers brought by springtime, there is a newness of creation everywhere. Today there is a newness, completion to the Liturgical year as we celebrate PENTECOST, the coming of the Holy Spirit. There are so many ways to meditate on this special feast – from consideration of the meaning of the name itself to the way the apostles approached this feast. Perhaps we could start with the words of the Sequence:

*Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!*

It was in that upper room that Jesus appeared to His apostles on Easter and today it is the Holy Spirit that rests on each person as an invisible tongue of fire, giving each one that special gift to speak – live. On this special day let each one of us be quiet, open to the Spirit at this time as with the apostles when “suddenly there comes a noise like a strong driving wind, that fills the entire house. Then appear tongues of fire that come to rest on each one so that they are filled with the Holy Spirit.”

For an extra cost, the name of the person being remembered may be engraved at the base of the ciborium.

Parish Social Ministry

There is a sign on the Parish Social Ministry bulletin board in the office. It says, "Love God, Love Others, it's that simple. Simple does not mean easy. Goodness, that is a mouthful. It is not easy at all.

Here at Parish Social Ministry and throughout the entire Parish, as we are one family, we strive to keep in mind that the simplicity of the Lord's message is never easy. We are all here on a journey to help one another meet our Lord in Heaven.

With that in mind, we have requests to bring back volunteers who can take people to various appointments. Also, we have parishioners who need a ride to Mass and back home.

We still need Spanish-speaking volunteers.

Thank you, as always, for the generous support.

Have a blessed week.

Janet
