A “Full” Barn... An “Empty Soul”

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's Gospel (Luke 12: 13-21) offers us one of the most striking and sobering parables of the Lord: the Parable of the Rich Fool.

A man approaches Jesus, asking Him to intervene in a family inheritance dispute. But instead of addressing the matter directly, our Lord offers a warning: “Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.”

In the parable that follows, a wealthy man is blessed with a plentiful harvest. Rather than giving thanks and seeking how he might serve others or honor God with his abundance, he thinks only of himself: “I will store up my goods... then say to myself, 'Rest, eat, drink, be merry!'” But God calls him “a fool”, for that very night his life would be required of him. What he stored up would be left behind, and his soul would face judgment.

Three lessons stand out:

1. Greed is not just about wealth; it is about the heart. We can be greedy for comfort, admiration, or control. When our hearts are filled with the desire to possess more, we slowly forget our dependence on God.
2. True riches are measured not by what we accumulate, but by what we offer in love, in generosity, in faith. Because what we keep, we lose, but what we give, we gain forever!
3. This life is short! Eternity is not a distant idea. It is the ultimate reality. This Sunday's Gospel Reading is not opposed to planning or success. It is opposed to forgetting God in the entire process.

As summer passes and the days begin to shorten, may we remember that our lives, too, are passing. Let us not be caught unaware. Instead, may we be like wise stewards, whose hearts are fixed on heaven, and whose treasures are stored where no moth destroys and no thief breaks in.

Fr. Anthony

Honoring Our Ushers

"Thank You for Serving at the Lord's Door!"

Last Sunday, July 27, at the 11:00 am Mass, we joyfully honored the dedicated men and women who serve as Ushers during our weekend Liturgies.

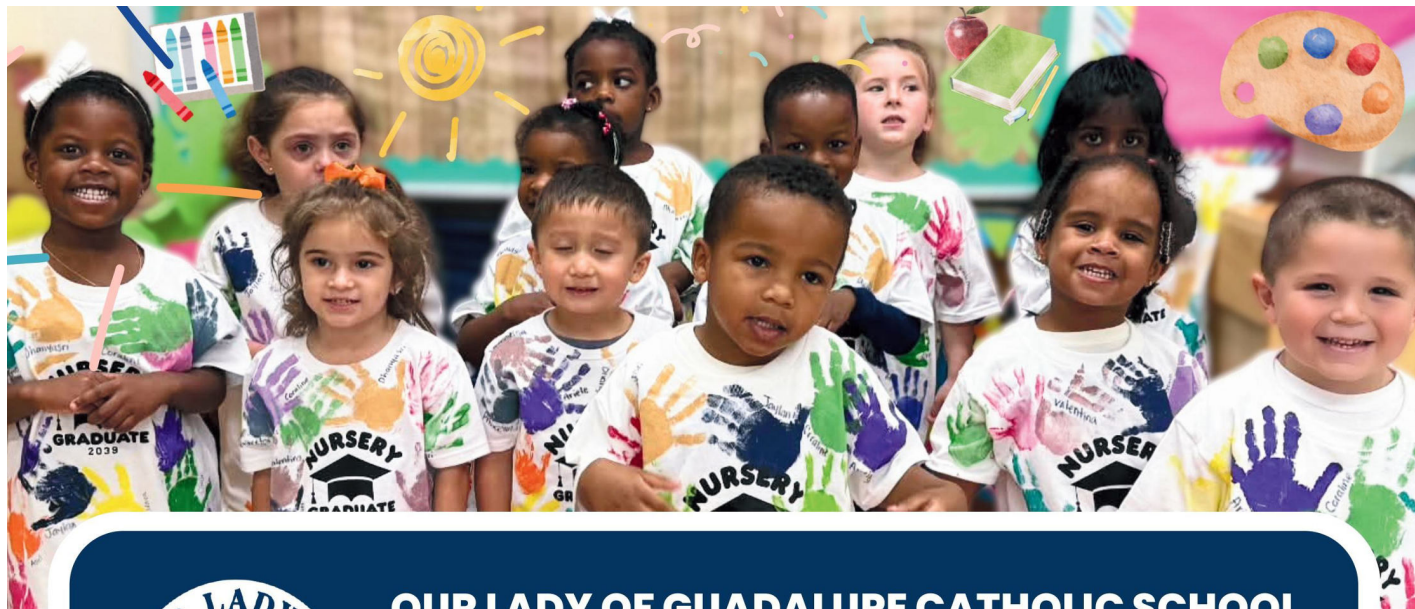

Their service is truly precious to our parish, as they help create a welcoming and reverent atmosphere at every Mass. Ushers greet parishioners at the doors, assist with seating, take up the collection, guide the Communion procession, and offer support wherever needed. With quiet attentiveness, they help everything flow smoothly and prayerfully.

We asked God to bless our parish Ushers and their families, and we offered our heartfelt thanks for their faithful service.

If anyone is interested in joining this important and grace-filled ministry, you are warmly invited to speak with the Priests after Mass or contact the parish office.

We hope you are enjoying summer on Long Island!

Throughout this season, we continue to serve many young families in need through our Walking with Moms ministry. As of our last count, we have served 65 families! Thanks to the many generous donations from our parishioners, many babies are now sleeping in safe bassinets or pack-and-plays and safely traveling in properly sized baby and toddler car seats. They also have access to diapers, wipes, formula, and clothing for the season.

That being said, "I have a situation" – We are down to our last "3 in 1" Convertible Car seat (the type that converts from babies to toddlers & works as a booster up to 100 lbs).

We currently have 2 families in need:

- one who has been sharing a toddler seat between cousins (which means only one child goes out at a time with the family, or worse, one child is not properly restrained in the car), and
- another family that is using a broken and expired hand-me-down car seat for their toddler.

Please consider donating a NEW convertible or toddler car seat today, individually or as a group. Your support is urgently needed!

Please contact me now if you can help or have any questions. Thank you for your generosity – May God bless you for all you do!

“God’s love is like that of a father or mother. He is not a distant, detached God, but one who is passionately in love with His people, whose heart is moved with compassion. He never tires of us; He never wearies of loving us. We may tire of Him, but He always waits, with arms open wide, ready to embrace us again and again. His love is not earned; it is given freely, generously, unconditionally. This is our security: even when we fall, we know we are not falling into the abyss, but into the arms of a loving Father.”

- Pope Francis (1936-2025)

Jubilee of Divine Mercy, April 3, 2016.

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

Family, Community, and Participation

(More on the Social Teaching of the Catholic Church)

Catholic Social Teaching reminds us that the family is the foundational cell of society: a sacred place where love, justice, and mercy are first experienced. Within the family, we find our first sense of belonging and our first lessons in human dignity.

Communities, in turn, must be shaped to uphold that dignity and serve the common good. This includes creating policies and systems that care for the vulnerable and underserved.

True participation goes beyond voting or volunteering. It means being present. It is lived out through active involvement in parish life, neighborhoods, and the lives of others with love and purpose. Each of us is called to be an agent of unity and justice, fulfilling God's vision for a just and loving world.

This week, let us reflect: How can I strengthen my family and contribute more fully to my community? Every act of love creates ripples of grace.

Romans 12:4–6: “For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them...”
