A Word from Fr. Chris:

Meeting St. Lawrence

Today, August 10, is the Feast of St. Lawrence, a deacon, who was one of the victims of the persecution of Valerian in 258. However, since it fell on a Sunday, the Sunday celebration of the Lord's Day takes precedence over the feast.

I got introduced to St. Lawrence in quite a realistic sense. It was probably in late July of 1992 that my friend Fr. Isaac Maunger invited me to concelebrate a school Mass in his parish. The date fell on August 10, the Feast of St. Lawrence, Deacon and Martyr. I was the homilist. I do not recall exactly what I said on that occasion but I probably impressed on the children the necessity of being fully committed to whatever role that has been entrusted to you and to serve as best as you can. I probably cited the story of St. Lawrence who was killed for protecting the treasures of the Church entrusted to his care, while also responsible for ministry to the poor and needy. I would have relished the children with the story of how St. Lawrence played a trick on the emperor who demanded to have all the treasures of the Church and St. Lawrence agreed. At the appointed time St. Lawrence gathered all the poor and destitute, to whom he had already dispensed the material goods in his care, and presented them to the emperor as the treasures of the Church.

My real encounter with St. Lawrence was to come after Mass when I met the proprietor of the school, Mr. Lawrence Mac-Sallah and his wife Felicia. Felicia is an educationist and Lawrence was a banker. They began the St. Lawrence School Complex in 1982 with two students, in Tesano, Accra, Ghana. By the 30th anniversary of the institution in 2022 the population was about 1000, and close to 1600 prominent people had passed through its portals, and were contributing their quota to the development of the country.

Lawrence Mac-Sallah sponsored the poor and educated them at his own expense in his school. I was impressed that he extended the same generosity to me. He told me that if I knew of any children who needed financial help with their education I should not hesitate to alert him. He generously opened the doors of his educational institute to the poor and needy children. Like his patron, St. Lawrence, the poor and destitute were his treasures. Lawrence Mac-Sallah made a lasting impression on me. In his face, I saw the face of St. Lawrence.

Daily Routine

Our Nursery program is a 5-day full day program that follow the same school hours as Kindergarten through Grade 8.

Doors open each day at 7:00 am for early drop-off and stay open until 5:30 pm each day.

Our early childhood school day includes:

Breakfast and morning prayer, pre-reading & writing activities, gross and fine-motor development, play centers and crafts, lunch and snack time, rest time.

Why OLG?

→ Forming the Mind

OLG offers an enriching early childhood program which provides a vibrant introduction to dual language acquisition, seamlessly integrating English and Spanish into the daily lives of young learners. Through the engaging power of rhymes, songs, and interactive daily routines, children naturally absorb new vocabulary and linguistic patterns. Specifically, a Pre-K component with a 50/50 daily instruction model ensures equitable exposure to both languages, fostering true bilingualism and biculturalism from an early age.

→ Faith Formation

In our early childhood program, students are exposed to the beauty and power of the Catholic faith through daily prayer and school-wide liturgies.

We hope you are enjoying summer on Long Island!

Throughout this season, we continue to serve many young families in need through our Walking with Moms ministry. As of our last count, we have served 65 families! Thanks to the many generous donations from our parishioners, many babies are now sleeping in safe bassinets or pack-and-plays and safely traveling in properly sized baby and toddler car seats. They also have access to diapers, wipes, formula, and clothing for the season.

That being said, “I have a situation” – We are down to our last “3 in 1” Convertible Car seat (the type that converts from babies to toddlers & works as a booster up to 100 lbs).

We currently have 2 families in need:

- one who has been sharing a toddler seat between cousins (which means only one child goes out at a time with the family, or worse, one child is not properly restrained in the car), and
- another family that is using a broken and expired hand-me-down car seat for their toddler.

Please consider donating a NEW convertible or toddler car seat today, individually or as a group. Your support is urgently needed!

Please contact me now if you can help or have any questions. Thank you for your generosity – May God bless you for all you do!

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

An Opportunity to Learn and Connect

Our parish is invited to attend an upcoming gathering that highlights how healthcare and Catholic Social Teaching (CST) can work hand in hand. I recently toured Community Care Rx in Plainview: a pharmacy not officially Catholic, yet deeply aligned with CST values.

They serve the sick, elderly, and vulnerable with great dignity. Their partnerships with housing programs and nonprofits help patients remain active in their communities. Services like HomeRx and Transitions of Care ensure continuity, compassion, and respect.

Their mission mirrors key CST principles: protecting life, caring for the poor, promoting human dignity, and standing in solidarity with those in need. Their services are available to all, and their delivery program reaches homes across Long Island.

The owner is a well-known philanthropist committed to serving with heart and purpose.

Details about the event will be shared in the bulletin and announced at Mass. I warmly encourage you to attend.
