The Power of the Lowest Place

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel (Luke 14:1, 7–14), Jesus speaks to us about humility: not the false kind that hides behind self-deprecation, but the true humility that sees everything as a gift from God and seeks to serve rather than to be served.

At a banquet, our Lord notices how people compete for the places of honor. He uses this moment to teach that in God's Kingdom, greatness is not measured by status, wealth, or recognition, but by the willingness to take the lowest place and to lift others up.

Humility is not weakness. It is truth. It is the virtue that allows us to stand before God without pretenses, aware of our dependence on His mercy. Bishop Fulton Sheen once said that "Pride is the love of one's own excellence; humility is the love of God's greatness." In other words, pride makes life about "me," while humility makes life about "Him."

Jesus also tells us to invite those who cannot repay us: the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind. In doing so, He is calling us to give without calculating the return, to love without keeping score. This is the way of the Gospel: it is how we imitate Christ, who gave everything for us without expecting anything in return.

In our own parish life, this means looking for those who may feel overlooked: the person who sits alone at Mass, the neighbor who rarely gets a visit, the one who carries a hidden burden. By welcoming them, we welcome Christ Himself. Let us ask the Lord for the grace to choose the humble place:

- ♦ To serve without seeking reward.
- ♦ To live with open hearts toward those most in need.

In the end, as Jesus promises, it is the Father who will say, "Friend, move up higher."

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

The Legacy of Saint Raymond Nonnatus

From Captive to Christ's Servant

Saint Raymond Nonnatus, whose feast is celebrated on August 31, was born in Catalonia, Spain, around 1204. He lived a life of deep faith and sacrifice. His name "Nonnatus" ("not born") recalls his birth by Caesarean section after his mother's death.

He entered the Mercedarian Order, dedicated to ransoming Christians enslaved by the Moors. When funds ran out, he gave himself as a hostage and suffered cruel treatment, even having his lips padlocked to stop him from preaching. His heroic witness continues to inspire the faithful.

Saint Raymond is patron of expectant mothers, those falsely accused, and confessors. His life speaks to us today:

- Patron of the falsely accused: reminding us of unjustly imprisoned people who need our prayers.
- Patron of mothers and childbirth: encouraging our parish's Respect Life efforts, especially Walking with Moms.

In his spirit of mercy, we invite parishioners to join a new transportation ministry, helping neighbors with rides to medical visits or groceries - a simple yet powerful way to share Christ's love.

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

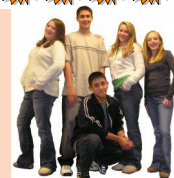

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.
